Work Experience:

Founder, Production Unbound: Houston, Texas   2016 - 2020
    As the owner and manager of an e-commerce startup selling over 125 different products, I utilized a variety of computer programs and functions, including Microsoft Office, to optimize business development, company organization, and strategy to facilitate and execute all facets of operation.

Customer Service Manager, S70, Inc.: Lawrence, NY   2013 - 2015
    This was beyond just another customer service position for the purpose of customer satisfaction and retention. We specifically dealt with high end, rare items. I was tasked with analyzing client investments, developing individualized portfolio plans, and conducting presentations and seminars to prospective customers for continued company growth. Further, I researched and purchased valuables from around the world as well as managed logistics and distribution of inventory.

Operations Manager, Ness Paper: Miami, FL   2011 - 2012
    It was my job to coordinate company operations throughout South Florida. This included the management of all incoming goods in addition to all aspects of distribution. This required constant communication with customers, drivers, and warehouse employees to ensure precision performance and consistency.
